These resorts and destinations reward rather than penalize those adventuring alone

No offense to family and friends, but sometimes escaping the trappings of everyday life means escaping the people who populate your life. Thankfully, resorts around the world are capitalizing on this trend of solo travel.

These resorts and destinations included here are unique properties that have curated packages and experiences specifically for the solo traveler. Best of all, their pricing rewards rather than penalizes those traveling alone. There's no surcharge for solo travelers, but instead rooms and experiences are designed specifically for the single adventurer.

From the rainforests of Costa Rica to the beats of Memphis to the rolling hills of Tuscany, these resorts and destinations invite the solo traveler.

The sleepy beachfront setting of the Caerula Mar Club

Solo wellness in the Bahamian Out Islands | Caerula Mar Club

Located on the sleepy and secluded island of South Andros, Bahamas is Caerula Mar Club, the island's first-ever luxury resort.

Caerula Mar Club offers a quiet escape for solo travelers seeking to solitary escape. Nestled on 10 acres of postcard-perfect beachfront property, the resort features five private villas and 18 sweeping suites just steps from the shoreline. Guests can begin their day reconnecting with the earth through a refreshing walk along the turquoise waters feeling the Bahamian breeze on their face and the soft sand between their toes. Relax and allow your mind to be clear as you lounge by the oceanfront pool, explore on the resort's complimentary bicycles, become immersed in a novel on your private deck, or journal underneath the shade of a palm tree. Those in search of wellness with a touch of adventure can opt to explore the Caribbean waters as you glide over the waves with the resort's complimentary kayaks and paddle boards.

Caerula Mar Club is the perfect combination of luxury and nature for the solo traveler.
